Academy of the Sacred Heart Hires Polly Fisher as Early Childhood Program Director

Bloomfield Hills, MI – The Academy of the Sacred Heart announced that Polly Fisher of Bloomfield Hills has assumed leadership of the school’s Early Childhood Program, effective July 1. Mrs. Fisher comes to the Academy following nearly ten years as Director of Our Shepherd Lutheran Childcare in Birmingham, where she oversaw a significant expansion in programming. Fisher steps into a role previously held by Patricia Wagner, the founding director of the Academy’s Early Childhood Program, which began as a preschool program, and has grown to include classrooms for infants, toddlers and young 3-year-olds.

An alumna of the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Mrs. Fisher is also a graduate of Northwood University. Her position as Director of the Early Childhood Program brings her career full circle, as her professional history began with a decade of service to the Academy as a preschool teacher and director of the summer camp.

“I am thrilled to welcome Mrs. Fisher ‘home,’” said Sr. Bridget Bearss, Head of School. “Our program has a new champion, and we will benefit from her expertise and leadership in early education.”
